

Power Your New Practice With Clio

Clio works with legal incubator programs across North America to help newly-qualified attorneys start their practice. By partnering with Clio, your incubator participants are eligible to receive 12 months of free access to Clio Manage, our groundbreaking legal practice management software.

MAKE RUNNING YOUR LAW FIRM EASIER WITH CLIO

Clio's cloud-based legal practice management platform helps you streamline your firm's operations so that you can deliver the exceptional experience your clients deserve. Connect all your essential business tools with over Clio's 200 integration partners to tailor workflows specific to your practice needs and transform the way legal services are delivered.

- Trusted by 150,000+ legal professionals across 100+ countries
- Recommended by 70+ bar associations and law societies
- Most 5-star reviews

To learn more about Clio's Incubator Program, email us at caap@clio.com.

Clio was instrumental in the development of my new practice and makes the worst parts of practicing law—time entry and billing—easy. The integration with the suite of tools I already use made it easy to get started with Clio.

Chad Pace, Attorney, Nevada State Bar New Practice Incubator Program

Clio's makes my work more organized and their client-facing portal provides a secure method for communicating with clients and sharing documents. As a new lawyer starting out, Clio has made my practice look much more professional than it actually was.

Charles Goodwin, Attorney, Nevada State Bar New Practice Incubator Program

Clio is the leader in legal practice management and client intake software.

With powerful tools to simplify every aspect of firm management from intake to invoice, Clio's cloud-based platform makes running your firm a breeze so you can spend more time doing what you do best—practicing law. Visit clio.com to learn more.